

3-11 November 2017

WINCHESTER SHORT FILM FESTIVAL 2017

---

Winchester's window into the world zeitgeist

---

A week of screenings of the best short films from over 50 countries in venues across Winchester, including world premieres and award-winning casts and directors

---

Book online now!

Concessions and 5-day passes available
Box office: winchestershortfilmfestival.com

f /WinchesterShortFilmFest    @WinchesterFilm    @_wsff_

WSFF_2017 AND THE GLOBAL ZEITGEIST_

To mark a year when nations are rebuilding borders and technology is redefining personal boundaries, the curators of WSFF_2017 have selected a collection of films that cross borders, challenge moral boundaries, test emotional limits and probe beneath the surface of relationships. Films that not only entertain and move, but that tell stories about the burning issues of our time.

VENUES_2017

6th

Winchester HiFi
The Old Georgian
29 Jewry St
Winchester SO23 8RY

7th

The Hyde Tavern
57 Hyde St
Winchester SO23 7DY

8th

Rawberry
52-54 St George St
Winchester SO23 8AH

9th

Hampshire Records Office
Sussex St
Winchester SO23 8TH

10th

Winchester Discovery Centre
Jewry St
Winchester SO23 8SB

11th

No.5
5 Bridge St
Winchester SO23 0HN
(Filmmakers Party)

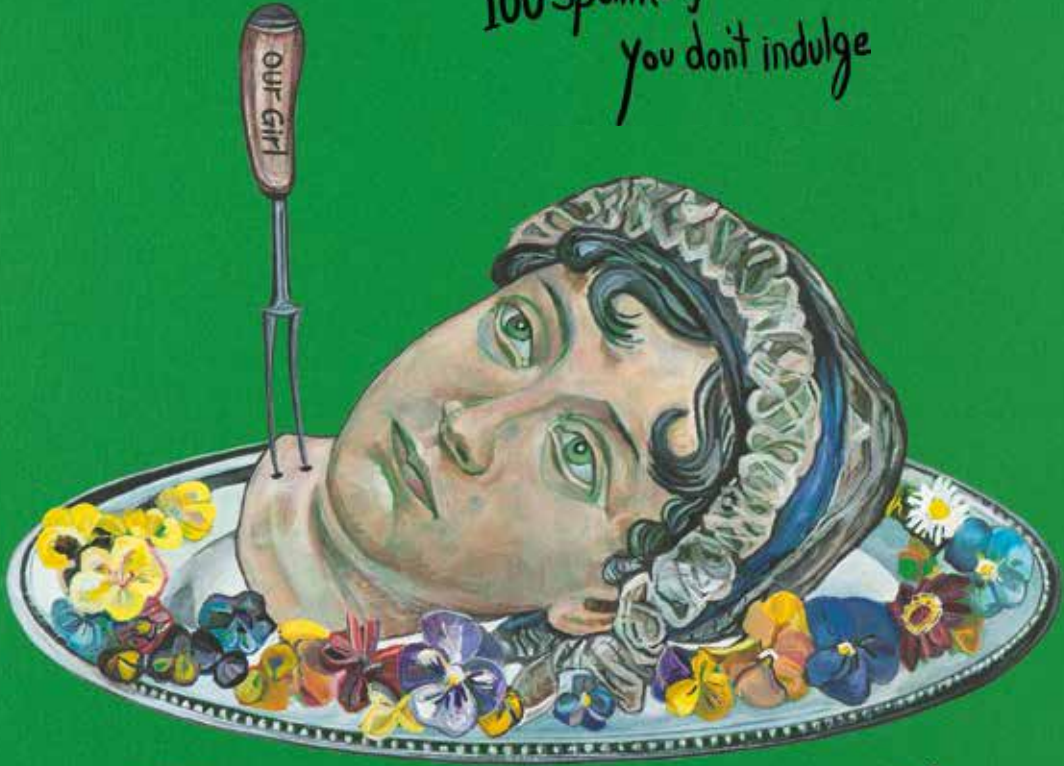

Issue 5

SMUG

Your brown paper bag, under the counter mag

£3.50 at least

100 spanks if you don't indulge

WINCHESTER'S SATIRICAL MAGAZINE

Winchester HiFi_6 Nov

6.30pm-9.30pm

Home Education

Directed by Andrea Niada

Dark British drama, starring Kate Reed (Our Broken Heart) and Richard Gin (Harold Shipman).

Hard Way

Directed by Daniel Vogelmann

Surprising German action-musical, starring Oliver Tompsett, Hannah Britland, Charlie Anson and Ruby O. Fee.

Transmission

Directed by Tom Hancock & Varun Raman

Exquisite British dystopian fever dream, starring James Hyland, Michael Shon and Kelby Keenan.

Faithless

Directed by Steve McCarten

Classy British detective thriller, starring Sean Gilder (Poldark) and Jack Gordon (Avengers).

The Gift

Directed by John Quarrell

Thought-provoking British drama, starring Gregory Finnegan (Doctors) and Alex Childs (Wizards vs Aliens).

Hyde Tavern_7 Nov

7.30pm - 10.00pm

The Girls Were Doing Nothing Directed by Dekel Berenson

Sumptuous drama about the conflicting nature of love and desire, starring Malcolm Jeffries, Katie Alexander Thom, Jolie Stanford and Kamil Lemie.

A Swedish Classic Directed by Måns Berthas

Insightful Swedish drama about the unravelling of a doomed relationship, starring Frida Liljevall (Viktor Åkerblom).

Seeing Him Directed by Chris Jones

Poignant British drama, starring George Taylor (Sherlock) and Vanessa Bailey (EastEnders).

Wintry Spring Directed by Mohamed Kamel

Emotive Egyptian father-daughter drama, starring Ahmed Kamal and Eman Moustafa.

Chippy Tea Directed by Will Herbert

Raw British drama about secrets boiling under the surface of an ordinary family, starring Sally Carmen and Ellie Paskell.

Plus surprise 'encore' film from the official selection

Rawberry_8 Nov

7.30 - 10.00pm

The Last 2 Days

Directed by Dimitris Georgiev

Subtle Bulgarian drama about the last two days of a wealthy family, starring Margita Gosheva and Velislav Pavlov.

Adaptation

Directed by Bartosz Kruhlik

Moving Polish drama about coping with a death in the family, starring Michał Włodarczyk and Małgorzata Witkowska.

The Palphone App

Directed by Thomas Grascoeur

Satirical French comedy about our alter egos on social media, starring Ophélie Marsaud and Pascal Neyron.

Consenting Adults

Directed by Alice Gruia

German drama about a couple deciding to speak the unspeakable, starring Jennifer Sabel and Claudius von Stolzmann.

A Father's Day

Directed by Mat Johns

Gripping post apocalypse British drama with special effects and make-up by Shaune Harrison (Star Wars, Harry Potter).

Plus surprise 'encore' film from the official selection

Hampshire Records Office_9 Nov

6.30-9.00pm

Cul-De-Sac

Directed by Nick Flügge

Poignant British comedy-drama, starring Mike Wozniak (Man Down) and Lucy Pearman (The Bill).

Kawaguchi 4256

Directed by Anshul Chauhan

Taught Japanese drama, starring Orson Mochizuki (Born) Shuna Lijima (Dan Miller) and Motokatsu Suzuki (The Outsider).

Roger

Directed by Brendan Cleaves

Surreal British comedy, starring Seann Walsh (Big Bad World) and John Bradley (Game of Thrones).

Belle and Bamber

Directed by Alex Forbes

Dark British comedy about dangers of psychotic imaginary friends, starring Emily Joyce, Amelia Crouch and Alex Babic.

Lili

Directed by Radley Mason

Heart-warming British drama about letting go, starring Alan Breck, Zachary Macdonald-Acott and Harriet Macmasters-Green.

Winchester Discovery Centre_10 Nov

7.30pm-10.00pm

The Best Fireworks Ever Directed by Aleksandra Terpinska

Exhilarating Polish drama about a political uprising, starring Justyna Wasilewska and Piotr Polak.

Whoever was using this bed Directed by Andrew Kotatko

Haunting Australian drama, starring Jean-Marc Barr (The Big Blue) and Radha Mitchell (Man on Fire).

Nicole's Cage Directed by Josef Brandl

Stylish German drama about the secret inner worlds of an ambitious, culture anchored couple.

Fortune Teller Directed by Gonzaga Manso (Winner WSFF_2016)

Touching Spanish drama about a man trying to get his life back on track.

On The Road Directed by Bartosz Nowacki

Tense Polish thriller, starring Magdalena Boczarska, Szymon Bobrowski, Adam Bobik, Przemysław Bluszczyński and Jakub Papuga.

COMING SOON_

For up-to-date news of when and where, visit our website, sign up to our newsletter or follow us on twitter, facebook and instagram.

Animated_ Shorts
Screening

Documentary_
Shorts
Screening

Hampshire_
Shorts
Screening

WSFF_
Encore
Screening
Best British & Best Foreign

WSFF_ Interviews with Directors & Filmmakers Hub

Sponsor of Best British Short Film

English *Naturally

Sponsor of Best Foreign Short Film

UNIVERSITY OF

WINCHESTER

Sponsor of Best Short Documentary

winchestertoday

Official Media Partner

Sponsor of The Hampshire Prize

Lean
Campaign

Sponsor of Best New Director

WINCHESTER SHORT FILM FESTIVAL 2017

---

Winchester's window into the world zeitgeist

---

We are very grateful once again to our sponsors, partners and venues, without whom the WSFF would not be possible.

---

2017 Sponsors:

English Naturally

Lean
Campaign

---

2017 Partners:

 WINCHESTERBID

winchestertoday

WFA
WINCHESTER FILM & ART CIC

GOOD GUYS
PRODUCTIONS

---

2017 Venues:

Winchester HiFi • Hyde Tavern • Rawberry • Hampshire Records Office • Winchester Discovery Centre